

ARESTY RESEARCH CENTER FOR UNDERGRADUATES

RUTGERS-NEW BRUNSWICK

Aresty Research Center for Undergraduates

Office of the Provost

WHAT IS THE ARESTY RESEARCH CENTER?

- Founded in 2004 through a generous gift from Jerome and Lorraine Aresty
- Mission is to facilitate faculty and student relationships that promote undergraduate engagement in research
- Offers several structured programs to match students with research opportunities and to provide them with support
- Learn more by visiting our website at aresty.rutgers.edu

THE ARESTY RESEARCH PATHWAY

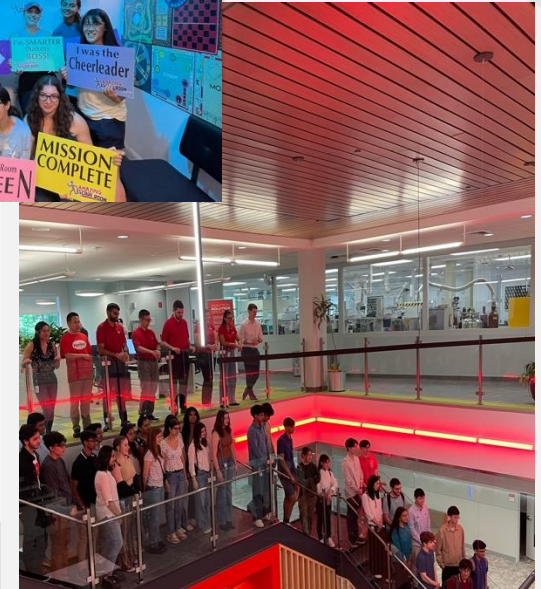

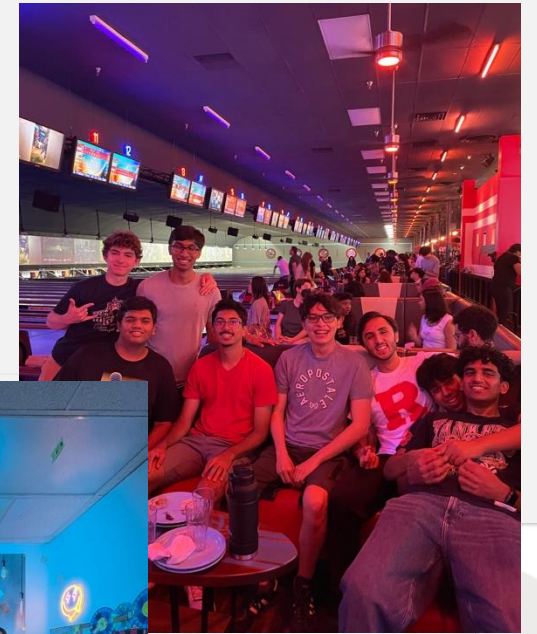

RUTGERS
UNDERGRADUATE
RESEARCH JOURNAL
(RURJ)

- An undergraduate-run, interdisciplinary journal designed to showcase the cutting-edge undergraduate research conducted at Rutgers University
- Opportunity to publish your research
- Experience the Peer Review Process
- View previous Journal Issues here
- Peer Review Program (Currently Closed)
 - To learn about and gain hands-on experience with peer review
 - Two-semester opportunity
 - Taught by undergraduates
 - Digital Badge: Undergraduate peer reviewers

SUMMER SCIENCE PROGRAM

- Rising Sophomores Only; no prior research experience required
- Full-time, 10-week summer session (STEM)
- $3,000 Stipend
- On-campus Housing
- Specific research project with a professor
- 1 meeting per week with Peer Instructors
 - Research ethics, poster design and presentation, abstract writing, etc.
- Final poster presentation
- 2026 Applications Open Early January
 - Program Dates: May 26th – July 30th

RESEARCH ASSISTANT PROGRAM

- Freshman, Sophomore, & Juniors; no prior research experience required
- Minimum of 5 hours of research per week with professor
- 2 meetings per month with Peer Instructors
 - Research ethics, poster design and presentation, abstract writing, etc.
- Undergraduate Research Symposium
- Applications Open Early March 2026 for next Academic Year
- All Disciplines (Social Sciences, Humanities, Arts, etc.)

ANNUAL UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM 22ND ANNUAL: APRIL 24, 2026

The Aresty Research Center for Undergraduates
Proudly Presents

The
ARE RSTY
20th
Annual Undergraduate Research Symposium

Date: Friday, April 26, 2024
Time: 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Location:
Alexander Library, Undergraduate Reading Room
College Avenue Campus
169 College Avenue, New Brunswick, NJ 08901

Open to the Rutgers community and general public
For more information, visit aresty.rutgers.edu/symposium

- Over 500 students from more than 70 Departments
- University-wide gathering of undergraduate researchers to present posters on their findings to an audience of faculty/staff, peers, alumni, corporate and community partners, and high-level university administrators
- STEM, Social Sciences, Humanities, and Arts are all represented
- Judging for best posters

“Nowhere else on campus will you find such a concentration of bright, engaged young investigators. The Aresty Undergraduate Research Symposium highlights all that is best about our university.”

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH GRANTS

Research Grant:

For more advanced researchers with an independent project

- Used solely for research costs (lab materials and supplies, etc.)
- Research Grant Application opens August 31st–October 15 for each academic year (Applications are now open)

Conference Funding:

- Opens Monthly
- Must apply a month prior to the conference
- Visit <https://aresty.rutgers.edu/programs> for more specific information to apply

PEER INSTRUCTOR & SENIOR PEER INSTRUCTOR

- Experienced researchers in junior or senior year
- Liaisons between student researchers and the Aresty Center
- Chair the Advisory Boards
 - Community Service
 - Events and Outreach
 - Marketing and Communication
- Lead 2 meetings per month for Research Assistants
 - Curriculum: scholarly and professional development
 - Address issues between students and professors
- 1 meeting per month with SPI to evaluate RA meeting progress
- Represent and promote Aresty at campus events

HOW TO APPLY FOR RA & SUMMMER SCIENCE

(aresty.rutgers.edu)

Aresty Research Center

Home About Us JSHS Programs Aresty RURJ Symposium Resources Support Us Contact Us

Search Projects

Search

Program

- All -

Departments	Subjects
Aresty Research Center	Addiction
BSPPP	Adolescence
BSPPP - Ctr for Energy, Econ & Envrnmnt Policy	Aeronautics and Astronautics
BSPPP - Ctr for Urban Policy Research	Aging
CABM	Alcohol Studies

Past Projects

Sort By

Relevance

View

5 per page

Research Projects

Search Projects

Sign in

Connect With Aresty

Location
Alexander Library, Suite 144-146
169 College Ave

Phone Number
848-932-7027

E-mail
aresty@echo.rutgers.edu

QUESTIONS?

- Website: <https://aresty.rutgers.edu>
- Email: aresty@echo.rutgers.edu
- Facebook.com/arestyresearchcenter
- Instagram.com/rutgers_aresty

